DODECANESE ISLANDS

KOS ISLAND

Endless beaches with turquoise waters, lush vegetation and abundantly flowing streams, ancient and medieval monuments, grand edifices of Italian architecture all come to spell one word: Kos, the third largest island of the Dodecanese Group, only 4 miles away from the coast of Turkey. Kos is the island that gave the world Hippocrates, the father of medicine.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Asklipieion • Medieval Castle (Kastro Nerantzas)
Archeological Museum • Ancient Kos Town
Hippocrates' plane tree •

DODECANESE ISLANDS

NISIROS ISLAND

Nisyros is one of the most beautiful Aegean Islands, yet untouched by tourism growth. According to Mythology, the island was created during the Gigantomachy, the battle between the Giants and the Gods. During that battle, Poseidon pursued the Giant Polyvotis to Kos, cut off a piece of the island and hurled it onto the Giant, thus sinking him into the Aegean Sea for eternity.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

The volcano • Volcanological museum
 Paleokastro • Monastery of Panagia Spiliani
 Castle of the knights • Panaghia Listiriotissa
 Medieval castle of Pantoniki

DODECANESE ISLANDS

ASTYPALEA ISLAND

Astypalea in Greece is a little island in the Dodecanese island complex, in the southeastern Aegean Sea. Thanks to its secluded location, it has managed to emerge as a great alternative destination for relaxing holidays! Although it belongs to the Dodecanese islands, Astypalea has the characteristic Cycladic architecture. Cubic whitewashed houses and churches, narrow alleys, blue windows, and wooden balconies create a unique atmosphere that will blow you away. Chora, the island's capital, boasts a breathtaking view of the Aegean Sea. Agios Konstantinos, Pera Yalos and Livadi are among the best seashores.

DODECANESE ISLANDS

LEVITHIA ISLAND

Between Amorgos and Kalymnos in the aegean sea lies the island of Levitha. This paradise corner of the Dodecanese is mainly known by sailors and there is only one family that lives there all the year round in total peace. It's coastline is very irregular in all points and these curves cause the formation of deep bays similar to small fiords. During the summer months Levitha is full of yachts and rented boats that use the island's deep water as shelter for the night. It is a very attracting place but a bit out of reach, ideal for resting between Patmos and Astypalea.

KALYMNOS ISLAND

Climbing up giant vertical rocks; diving in a sea bottom where centuries-old ship wrecks lie; enchanting caves; wonderful beaches and picturesque island settlements. This is Kalymnos: a destination offering more than you can imagine! Welcome to Kalymnos, the fourth largest island of the Dodecanese Group is widely known as an international sponge-harvesting trade center.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Panagia Charitomeni church • Byzantine Megalo Kastro
Profitis Ilias church • Christ of Jerusalem church
Ruins of the ancient town in "Damos" • Hellenistic fort
Ancient citadel at Stimenia • Daskaleio Cave
Monastery of Panagia i Kyra Psili
