IONIAN SEA PARGA

Parga is a lovely town on the north western side of Greece, nestled between lush green hills and the clear waters of the Ionian Sea. Although it is a mainland town, its architecture gives a special island vibe. Colorful houses with a breathtaking view of the sea, exotic beaches with turquoise waters and a wonderful natural landscape give the best of impressions to every traveller.

IONIAN SEA SIVOTA

Most of the people visiting Sivota stay only near beaches. Nevertheless, the rest of the area is also equally interesting. From the south side of the settlement starts a beautiful route which includes the abandoned Vrachona settlement and Polineri village. Because the area is full of rural roads most of the route follows them. Hikers' effort is paid back with the beautiful view of Sivota islets and Corfu in the background.

IONIAN SEA CORFU ISLAND

Cosmopolitan Kerkyra is probably the best known Ionian island and one of the Mediterranean's most popular destinations. It attracts hundreds of thousands of tourists annually and is an inexhaustible source of artistic inspiration. Its enormous cultural heritage, combined with its natural beauty, ideal climate, inviting beaches, and noteworthy sights make it a prestigious and attractive destination for Greek and foreign visitors alike.

IONIAN SEA PAXOS ISLAND

A sanctuary of love for gods. Cultural village of Europe for the year 2004, Paxi (or Paxoi) is the ideal island for a peaceful holiday. Fjord-shaped beaches, underwater caves, small bays and green hills welcome the lucky visitors. According to the legend, the island would be the southernmost tip of Corfu, if the God of the Sea, Poseidon, had not broken it off with his trident when he needed a god-deserving place to live his love with the Nereid Amphitrite.
