SKRADIN

Simply delightful in every single detail – small, picturesque and tasteful, Skradin is located on the spot where the river Krka kisses the sea. At this area, where ancient Romans used to moor their galleys 2000 years ago, lies the picturesque town of Skradin, where the simultaneous sounds of crickets and frogs best describe what a magical natural place this is. The old town of this fairytale-like place has been declared a protected cultural monument, and Skradin, the favourite meeting location of yachtsmen, also stands as the “maritime” entrance to another natural wonder – the nearby Krka National Park.

DEFINITELY VISIT:

Skradin & Roski waterfalls • Krka national park
Island of Visovac • Church of Our Lady • Church of Our Lady

VIS ISLAND

Saved from any unsightly development by the island's secret military status under Yugoslavia, both Vis and Komiza are charming towns and offer some of the best restaurants tucked in the narrow streets and beautiful old stone houses. The Island of Bisevo nearby hides an extraordinary natural phenomena – the Blue Cave. At noon the sun pours into the cave from under the water, creating the most magnificent turquoise light.

CROATIA / ADRIATIC SEA

HVAR ISLAND

Hvar town is known as the hippest destination on the Adriatic, a place where you must be seen. But this beautiful town has something for everyone: incredibly glamorous night life, exclusive restaurants, a great art scene, wonderful views from the 17th century fortress, a magnificent piazza, one of the oldest public theatres in Europe... and the perfect climate. During the day, a set of small islets right across from Hvar town, offers tranquil bays, beautiful beaches and several great restaurants. Sail around them to find your perfect spot, drop anchor and enjoy the blueness of the sea and the relaxing atmosphere.

CROATIA / ADRIATIC SEA

KORCULA ISLAND

Korcula is a Venetian town with old medieval streets and walls, and beautiful Renaissance churches. Over the water are the lofty peaks of the Peljesac peninsula, whose slopes produce some of the best Croatian wines. We highly recommend you visit some vineyards for tastings and to stock up on supplies.

CROATIA / ADRIATIC SEA

MLJET ISLAND

This beautiful and green National Park offers several peaceful anchorages, ideal for a leisurely evening on board. But this quiet island has an interesting history too. The 12th century monastery in the interior of the island on the Big Lake is well worth a visit.

BRAC ISLAND

Brač is a Croatian island in the Adriatic Sea. It's best known for the white-pebble beach Zlatni Rat (Golden Cape), a favored windsurfing site outside the resort town of Bol.
